Autoría	Una vez firmado el formulario no se aceptan cambios de autoría ni de orden de autores.	Fig. 4
Cover letter	Las fuentes se contradicen: «Documents for Submission» dice que no es necesaria desde el 19-may-2025; «Paper submission» la pide a quien envía por primera vez.	Fig. 6–7
Formato	Plantilla (2027) IJIES_Format.docx, una columna. Mínimo 8 páginas. Resumen de hasta 150 palabras. Sin ORCID ni enlaces en el bloque de autores. Referencias en estilo IJIES, distinto de IEEE.	Fig. 8–13

Datos (Zenodo)	IJIES no obliga a usar Zenodo: pide declarar dónde están los datos (repositorio y URL o DOI) o por qué no se comparten. Zenodo exige no violar privacidad ni confidencialidad, declarar licencia, y no modifica lo ya publicado.	Fig. 15, 20–21
Costos	USD 300; +USD 100 si no se sigue la plantilla; +USD 50 por página desde la 11.ª; pago solo con PayPal o tarjeta; los cargos pueden cambiar en junio.	Fig. 22

3. Firma y autoría

El único documento que se firma es el formulario de transferencia de copyright. Lo firma el autor de correspondencia en nombre de los coautores; no prevé firma del director ni del asesor. Si los asesores deben figurar como coautores, hay que decidirlo antes del envío.

3. A copyright permission is obtained for materials published elsewhere and which require this permission for reproduction.

The copyright transfer covers the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, translations, photographic reproductions, microform, electronic form (offline, online) or any other reproductions of similar nature. The corresponding author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all co-authors. This agreement is to be signed by at least one of the authors who has obtained the assent of the co-author(s) where applicable. After submission of this agreement signed by the corresponding author, changes of authorship or in the order of the authors listed will not be accepted.

Requirements of Paper

Manuscripts accepted for publication in the IJIES journal are expected to make a meaningful contribution to scientific research or technological development, and must meet the following criteria (1) through (6).

(1) The paper is objectively judged to have creativity. (Creativity)

(2) The paper is objectively judged to have originality. (Originality)

Peer-Review Process and Publication Schedule

Peer-Review Process:

The review process of IJIES consists of two processes: 1st review and 2nd review. Each process requires about 2 weeks to review your manuscript. In general, decisions will be made after peer-review. (see Reviewer Guidelines)

Submitted manuscripts will be reviewed by two reviewers: a member of the editorial committee and one referee requested to review the paper. The editor-in-chief will summarize the reports from the referees, and send a final decision to author(s).

The author(s) will be notified via "mypage" within 2 weeks of receipt of the manuscript. Notification will be in the form of, Evaluation A (Accept as it is),

Publication Schedule (Effective from 2027):

IJIES is a monthly journal. Submissions are accepted throughout the year.

Starting with Vol. 20, No. 1 (2027), all accepted papers will be published by the end of the calendar month in which the camera-ready process is completed, except for papers completed during the last three calendar days of the month.

Papers for which the camera-ready process is completed during the last three calendar days of the month will be published in the following month.

The camera-ready process includes the preparation, formatting, and final confirmation of the manuscript for publication.

The publication schedule is based on the completion of the camera-ready process rather than the date of acceptance.

The previously available Fast Publication Service (USD 100) will be discontinued. No additional fee is required for publication under the new schedule.

All papers published from Vol. 20, No. 1 (2027) onward will use the new single-column format. Manuscripts previously submitted in the two-column format will be converted to the new format by the INASS Editorial Office.

The APC for each manuscript will be determined based on the manuscript format and page count at the time of submission. No additional APC will be charged solely as a result of the conversion to the new single-column format.

Review Articles (Survey Papers)

Starting in 2027, IJIES will accept Review Articles (Survey Papers) for publication. Submissions will be accepted beginning in November 2026 .

Review Articles should provide comprehensive, systematic, and critical analyses of existing research, identify significant research gaps, unresolved challenges, and emerging trends, and present valuable perspectives on future research directions within the scope of IJIES.

Manuscripts that merely list or summarize existing studies without substantial critical analysis, meaningful synthesis, or original insights will not be considered for publication. Review Articles must demonstrate a clear scholarly contribution beyond a descriptive summary of the existing literature.

Abstract: The abstract must appear at the beginning of the main text, immediately below the author information and separated from it by a horizontal line. Use the heading "Abstract" in 10-point Times New Roman, bold, with an initial capital letter. The abstract text should be written in 10-point Times New Roman, single-spaced, and must not exceed 150 words. Please do not use special characters, symbols, or mathematical expressions in the title or abstract.

Keywords: Use the heading "Keywords" in 10-point Times New Roman, bold, with an initial capital letter. The keywords should be written in 10-point Times New Roman, single-spaced, with only the first letter of each keyword capitalized, except for acronyms, which should retain their conventional capitalization. Keywords should be separated by commas (e.g., Power converters, Switched-capacitor circuits, Integrated circuits, RBFNN, CNN). Place a horizontal line immediately below the keywords. Leave one blank line after the horizontal line, and then begin the Introduction section.

organization names in full. Academic, professional, or administrative titles and positions should not be included. Identical affiliations should not be repeated; authors sharing the same affiliation should be grouped under a single affiliation entry.

For multiple authors, a two- or three-column layout may be used. All author affiliations must be consistently formatted in italic, regardless of the number of authors or the layout used. The corresponding author's email address should be centered and set in 10.5-point Times New Roman, regular, as illustrated.

Do not include ORCID identifiers. ORCID profile links, ResearchGate or Google Scholar profile links, personal website URLs, or any other external links in the author name and affiliation section.

5. Type-style and fonts

Wherever "Times" is specified, either Times Roman or Times New Roman may be used. If neither font is available in your word-processing software, use a font that closely resembles Times in appearance. The use of

* In figures and tables, the font size is 10pt.

9. Figures and tables

Figures and tables should be integrated into the text. When referring to figures and tables in the main text, use "Fig. 1", "Fig. 2", etc., for figures and "Table 1", "Table 2", etc., for tables. In figure captions and table titles, use "Figure 1.", "Figure 2.", etc., and "Table 1.", "Table 2.", etc., respectively. Leave one blank line above and below each figure and table, including its caption or title, to ensure clear separation from the main body text.

Callouts, figure captions, and table titles should be set in 10-point Times New Roman, regular. Only the first word of each figure caption and table title should be capitalized, except for proper nouns and acronyms.

References

List and number all bibliographical references at the end of the paper using 11-point Times New Roman. References must be formatted according to the IJIES reference style, which differs from the IEEE reference style. Please follow the examples provided below carefully.

For each reference, list the authors using their initials followed by their family names (e.g., J. A. Smith). Separate two authors with "and"; for three or more authors, separate names with commas and place "and" before the final author. For references with seven or more authors, list the first six authors followed by italicized "et al." Do not abbreviate family names. Enclose journal and conference paper titles in curly double quotation marks (" "), followed by a comma outside the closing quotation mark. Italicize journal titles, conference titles, and book titles.

a lower number has been cited for the first time. When citing two or more references together, place the reference numbers within a single set of square brackets, for example, [2, 4–5]. The reference list must be numbered in the same order as the first citations in the main text.

Conflicts of Interest

A Conflict of Interest statement must be included in every manuscript. Authors must disclose any conflicts of interest or explicitly state, "The authors declare no conflict of interest." Any personal, financial, professional, or other interests that could reasonably be perceived as influencing the presentation or interpretation of the research findings must be clearly disclosed.

Author Contributions

An Author Contributions statement must be included in every manuscript with multiple authors. A brief paragraph specifying the individual contributions of each author should be provided. The following format may be used: "Conceptualization, XXX and YYY; methodology, XXX; software, XXX; validation, XXX, YYY, and ZZZ; formal analysis, XXX; investigation, XXX; resources, XXX; data curation, XXX; writing—original draft preparation, XXX; writing—review and editing, XXX; visualization, XXX; supervision, XXX; project administration, XXX; funding acquisition, YYY," as applicable.

Authorship should be limited to individuals who have made substantial contributions to the work project administration, XXX; funding acquisition, YYY," as applicable.

Authorship should be limited to individuals who have made substantial contributions to the work presented in the manuscript.

Data Availability

Authors should provide a Data Availability Statement describing whether and how the data supporting the findings of the study can be accessed. If the data are publicly available, the name of the repository and the relevant URL or DOI should be provided. If the data cannot be shared due to privacy, confidentiality, or other restrictions, the reasons should be specified.

Acknowledgments

The Acknowledgments section should identify any organizations, institutions, or funding agencies that provided support for the work. For example: "This work was supported by the National Natural Science
